MERLIN EVENTS Christmas Cracker

30th November - 2nd December 2018

INTRODUCTION

After the mightily impressive 2017 Christmas Cracker held in the grand surroundings of Ragley Hall in Worcester we head east in 2018 to Hertfordshire.

The Pendley Manor Hotel at Tring is an impressive four star Victorian mansion set in extensive grounds where peacocks roam. We arrive and register on Friday 30th November and in the evening enjoy a welcome drinks reception prior to dinner. On Saturday 1st December we set off on a scenic drive through the Hertfordshire and neighbouring Buckinghamshire countryside traversing the glorious Chiltern Hills to a coffee stop near Thame. Having rested and refreshed we continue to Milton Keynes to visit Bletchley Park.

Bletchley Park

Known as 'Station X' during World War 2, this was the home of the secret scientific team that worked to decipher German military messages sent using the Enigma code machine, the 'bombers' computers used to crack the code.

This will be a most interesting and fascinating visit in which a number of feature displays can be viewed including the use of pigeons during the war, wartime vehicles and a Churchill collection. During our visit a light lunch will be served after which we make our return drive to the hotel following the

Enigma code machine

Grand Union Canal and arriving in good time to relax prior to our evenings' activities.

Our black tie evening commences with a drinks reception followed by musical entertainment. This is deliberately kept secret but I know my choice for this year will be very popular. After a short break we then enjoy our traditional Christmas Dinner to complete a very special 'Christmas Cracker' weekend. All that remains is for us to bid farewell on the Sunday morning and head for home.

I look forward to welcoming you and wish you a most enjoyable and memorable weekend.
